SON KILLS FATHER WHO BEATS MOTHER

Eddie Soudonka, Eighteen-Year-Old Cripple Shoots Parent in South Side Home.

END OF SERIES OF CRUELTIES

Coming to the aid of his mother, who had been the object of a brutal cripple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank and outskate them all." Soudonka, 4123 South Fortleth

The murder was the culmination family by the father, who returned home shortly after 7 o'clock after a according to the story told at the the ordeal. house was the first object of ridicule and was ordered from the home. Later, another son, Joe, 20 years of age, delivery boy at the grocery store of Fred Hansen, Thirteenth and Vinton streets, who had just arrived home from work interfered and the assault began.

Youth Runs for Weapon. As the father raised a tin bucket with which he was beating his wife in the face for another of many blows. Eddle, tolerable, rushed into the bedroom and securing a 32-caliber revolver fired two shots in quick succession at his father. One took effect just above the heart and the other entered the left arm. The parent died almost instantly.

We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin for the month of January averaged 3.2 delivery boy for a West L street grocery store. At the time of the shooting he was attracted to his home from a nearby skating pond by the passing of the from the Lowell school, entering high school for the first time Monday morn-

Eddie, the crippled boy, sustained his life injury in a fall down an elevator shaft at the Cudahy Packing plant a little over a year ago. At the time he was working in the tin shop. Two suits against the packing company brought by the father, are still pending in supreme court, one for $10,000 and another for $2,417. No decision has as yet been made in either.

Two years ago the little family, through the faithfulness of the two brothers, B die and Joe, were able to erect a new home in which they now live. All but $400 has been paid on this house. The father was 53 years of age. They have lived the greater part of their lives in Omaha, the boys being well known for their trust-

Bed clothing soaked with blood from the mother's wounds and a lot of tinware, bent to unrecognizable shapes, which the father used in beating his wife, were brought to the police station as evidence The boys were given a bed and made comfortable in the upstairs of the police station. Mrs. Soudonka is 43 years of age It is said that the dead man for many years had been irresponsible and had not contributed to his family's support. Deputy Coroner Larkin took charge of his body.

Builders' Exchange Members at Banquet

One hundred and fifty men and romen, members of the Omaha Builders exchange, and their wives, attended the annual banquet of that organization Tuesday night at the Commercial club rooms A big stage had been constructed at one end of the dining room, where the speakers, the musicians and the actors of the funny sketches and skits operated. Charles E. Black was the toastmaster Richard L. Metcalfe gave a discussion of the Mexican situation, predicting that Mexico will soon quiet down and will be a great field of opportunity for Americans with little capital, but large character and integrity.

John Latenser, jr., spoke on the archi-tect and the contractor. He declared the architect and the contractor bound together for a lifetime and gave a gen eral talk along the line of co-operation of the two crafts.

Robert Vierling, the 5-year-old son o Frank Vierling, was all ragged up for a Charlie Chaplin, and made one of the big hits of the evening. Musical selections, interpretative dancing and funny sketches formed the rest of the program

COLD WEATHER DOES NOT CUT DOWN LIVE STOCK RUN

Contrary to expectations, the weather is not cutting down the shipments of live stock from the feed lots and yards out in the state. The Northwestern brought in 165 cars of hogs and cattle for the South Omaha market. It is asserted that out in the state where farmers and feeders put the cattle into the lots early, they have taken on flesh more rapidly than in former years and that now they are in prime condition

Whatisa farmer's wife?

Is she a drudge? Does each day bring her nothing but grinding, humdrum toil—each night nothing but numb exhaustion? It used to be so.

That's why thousands of women who loved the thought of farm life have shrunk from its realities.

But to-day they're helping farm housewives to make work easier, home cheerier, and a woman's life on the farm really worth living.

Read, for instance, how Iowa is Reaching Her Women, in this week's issue of

CENTIONAN

The Country Gentleman is published for the whole farm family. Many of its pages are devoted every week to giving pleasure and practical help to the woman, the mother, the housewife. This week it contains:
